MASTER OF EDUCATION (MEd) IN LEADERSHIP IN LEARNING

Focused for COLLEGE EDUCATORS AND LEADERS

The need for new college leaders across Canada continues to grow. Understanding what leadership in a college environment means helps prepare future college leaders for these important roles.

UPEI offers a special cohort in the Master of Education (MEd) in Leadership in Learning for today's college educators and aspiring college leaders. The Class of 2017 will be the fifth class in this customized program.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THIS COHORT

- Ten courses focused on theories, research, and practices for college educators
- Start and finish in July in beautiful Charlottetown
- Complete 6 courses online
- Students in this cohort will be college educators, leaders and aspiring leaders.
- Instructors are nationally recognized educational leaders with experience in university and college settings.
- Competitive tuition fees
- Program completion in 25 months

ADMISSION CRITERIA

An undergraduate or graduate degree from an approved university with an average of 70% or higher in the last 20 courses (60 credit hours). An applicant who lacks a degree, or an applicant who possesses a degree with an academic average under 70%, may be considered for admission under exceptional circumstances.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

All documents are to be sent to the Office of the Registrar. Please indicate on your application form and in your personal statement that you are applying to this special cohort. We will accept applications until the cohort is full.
