MASTER OF EDUCATION (MEd) IN LEADERSHIP IN LEARNING

Focus on EDUCATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

This Master of Education cohort will focus on Education for Environmental Sustainability with educators who are working in a wide variety of contexts within and beyond schools. This cohort will examine theories, research, and practices concerning education for environmental sustainability, with a focus on problem-based learning, inquiry, and building an environmentally sustainable culture.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THIS COHORT

- Ten courses all focused on theories, research, and practices in education for environmental sustainability
- Seven courses online and three courses onsite in two UPEI Summer Institutes at the beginning and end of the program
- Competitive tuition fees
- Program completion in 25 months

ADMISSION CRITERIA

An undergraduate or graduate degree from an approved university with an average of 70% or higher in the last 20 courses (60 credit hours). An applicant who lacks a degree, or an applicant who possesses a degree with an academic average under 70%, may be considered for admission under exceptional circumstances.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

All documents are to be sent to the Office of the Registrar. Please indicate on your application form and in your personal statement that you are applying to this special cohort. We will accept applications until the cohort is full.
