Bill and Denise Andrew Scholarships in Island Studies Gold Award and Silver Award

DESCRIPTION

In 2005, Bill and Denise Andrew contributed $1 million to the University of Prince Edward Island to benefit all faculties at UPEI.

As part of this donation, an unrestricted gift of $50,000 was designated to the UPEI Faculty of Arts – Master of Arts in Island Studies program. The MAIS program used this funding to create an endowed scholarship fund to support two awards. Minimum annual funding is: Gold Award of $1,250 and Silver Award of $750.

CRITERIA

Applicants will be judged on the basis of their academic performance, merit and particularly on their average scores registered during their MAIS program. Successful applicants will be expected to submit a brief report for use in a media release to the MAIS Coordinator following the receipt of the award, to publicize the Bill and Denise Andrew Scholarships in Island Studies. Also any relevant student output including posters or thesis will acknowledge the award support.

Students are eligible for these scholarships if they:

- Have completed at least four (4) of the core MAIS courses;
- Are not a full time employee of UPEI; and
- Are not in receipt of other scholarships in excess of $2,000 at the time of application for the Bill and Denise Andrew Scholarships in Island Studies
