Erwin and Joyce Andrew Memorial Scholarships in Island Studies: Canadian Island and International Island

DESCRIPTION

These annual scholarships were established at UPEI in honour and memory of Joyce M. (Hooper) Andrew and Erwin Andrew, by their son Bill Andrew and his wife, Denise.

Joyce and Erwin resided in Milton, PEI. They had three sons: Bill, Brian, and Rollin.

Erwin Andrew was a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force. In 1948, as part of his service, the family moved from the Island to Europe. Several family moves occurred throughout Mr. Andrew's career. Following retirement in 1967, the Andrew's returned to PEI, with residence in South Milton, and he became part of the horse breeding business for more than fifty years.

Joyce (Hooper) Andrew was a teacher and aside from her hobbies of knitting, quilting, cooking, reading, playing bridge, skating, and snowshoeing, she was also very involved in community initiatives. She was the chairwoman of the Provincial Exhibition Committee for the Prince Edward Island Women's Institute. Apart from her Women's Institute involvement, Joyce was active in church work. She was the Vice President and Secretary of Education of the Milton ACW and member of the PEI Board of Anglican Church Women. For many years she was a Sunday School Teacher. To quote Mrs. Andrew "Being involved in volunteer work one becomes more aware of the needs and concern of not only one's community, but the universal community. Action should follow awareness."

CRITERIA

The Erwin and Joyce Andrew Memorial Scholarships in Island Studies, one Canadian Island award and one International Island award, will be granted to two students to reward merit and achievement in the program, and support thesis fieldwork of students registered in the program.

Students are eligible for these scholarships if they:

- Have completed at least three (3) of the core MAIS courses;
- Are not a full time employee of UPEI; and
- Are not in receipt of any other major donor-funded scholarship at the time of application

APPLICATION PROCESS (Deadline: August 15)

Please submit all required application material by the stated deadline for award consideration.
