

Graduate student travel

Graduate Studies Committee's annual allowance

MSc students in the Faculty of Science have an annual allowance ($1,000 per year for two years) to facilitate travel to present UPEI research results in conferences and meetings. PhD students have a similar total allowance over the course of their program. For questions or claims, please contact the Graduate Coordinator (sciencegradstudies@upei.ca) and gather details on how to prepare and/or submit a travel form.

Office of Graduate Studies Travel funds

This Office provides campus-wide support to graduate students travelling for conferences ($500 per year). For questions and claims, please contact Ms. Colleen Gallant (cgallant@upei.ca) or Ms Leslie Cudmore (lcudmore@upei.ca).

Colleen MacDougal Travel Bursary

Pending of fund availability, UPEI offers a competitive bursary with awards of up to $500 for travel to conferences. Details for applications and deadlines can be found on the link on Awards and Scholarships (check the Prospective students link in this website).
