

Academic Writing Classes: EAL High School Students

The English Academic Preparation Program (EAP) at UPEI is offering academic writing support for EAL high school students. Our small class size allows for plenty of one-to-one time with the instructor to help ensure student success.

Basic Skills Program: Spring Session

May 16 to June 29

Tues & Thurs, 530-8:00

Advanced Skills Program: Summer Session

July 4 to Aug 25

Tues & Thurs 4:00-6:00

Basic Program, Skill Focus:

- review and practice the writing process (basic essay format)
- compose formal email and letters; journal writing
- expand academic vocabulary and grammar knowledge
- improve sentence structure

Advanced Program, Skill Focus:

- expand practice with advanced essay formats
- build effective research skills
- compose academic reflections and responses
- improve formal writing techniques
- advanced practice in grammar and sentence structure
- advanced practice in vocabulary

Did you know that course assessment results can be used to verify your writing level for UPEI admissions!

For more information, please contact:

Joy MacKinnon

T: 902-566-6003

E: jjmackinnon@upepei.ca

UNIVERSITY of Prince Edward ISLAND

1. The course fee ($586) includes all materials, 1:1 feedback from instructor, & use of the Robertson Library resources.
2. Students who complete the course and successfully meet the language requirements of UPEI will not require language testing in writing should they be accepted at UPEI. Results are valid for up to two years.