Campuses

CSU has a variety of locations, but its main campuses include:

- Albury/Wodonga (Business, Nursing, Environmental Science, Health and Education)
- Bathurst (Exercise Science, Computer Science, Communication, Nursing, Business, Social Science, Engineering)
- Wagga Wagga (Business, Social Science, Education)

To view all CSU campus profiles, see: <http://futurestudents.csu.edu.au/unilife/campuses>

Accommodation

CSU's campuses have a variety of accommodation options, from traditional residences with meal plans to self-catered cottages. These accommodations guarantee that you will be at the heart of campus life. See: <http://accommodation.csu.edu.au/>

Courses

You may create your own study plan with CSU's course handbook. Make sure that the courses you are interested in are offered at the same campus, for the correct sessions. Keep in mind that they may also require prerequisites, which will be waived where proof of previous studies compare with CSU's requirements.

Course handbook: <http://www.csu.edu.au/handbook/>

English Language Requirements

Non-native English speakers are required to demonstrate their English proficiency through successful prior study in English or obtaining an appropriate score on the IELTS, TOEFL, or PTE tests. Keep in mind that certain programs may require a higher level of proficiency than others. For more information, see:

<http://futurestudents.csu.edu.au/international/course-entry-requirements/english-language>

Visas

Canadian citizens are required to apply for a student visa if they intend to study at CSU. It is recommended that you apply for a visa well in advance before booking your flight. You must be accepted to study at CSU before applying for your student visa. For more information, see: <https://www.border.gov.au/Trav/Visa-1>
