A full-time load for undergraduate students for one semester is between 45 and 60 credit points (60 being the standard load).

Housing

La Trobe works with the Australian Homestay Network to help exchange students find an Australian family to stay with during the University semester. Students are able to choose from a range of different AHN Homestay and meal options, including traditional full-meals Homestay, dinner-only Homestay, or no meals Homestay.

On-campus accommodation for exchange students is also available. See <http://www.latrobe.edu.au/accommodation>

Orientation

International students must attend an orientation session before the beginning of the semester. See page 46 of the following link - http://www.latrobe.edu.au/_data/assets/pdf_file/0019/552124/My-Life-at-La-Trobe-Guide-2016-Spreads.pdf

Visa and Travel Information

Canadian citizens must apply for a student visa in order to study at La Trobe. Students should apply for a visa well in advance before booking their flight. For more information, see: <https://www.border.gov.au/Trav/Visa-1>

For Australia travel advice and advisories, see <https://travel.gc.ca/destinations/australia>

Insurance

As a condition of a student visa, all international students must have Overseas Health Cover (OSHC) for the duration of their visa. OSHC offers medical and hospital cover for international students while they are in Australia.
