

Facilitator: Marla Haines

Place of Residence: Charlottetown, PE

Occupation: Senior Awards Officer

Areas of Expertise: Public speaking and presentation; theatre; government administration; child support and family law

About Me: Marla Haines has mastered the art of public speaking during her time in theatre (over 25 years), in academia, and in her career. She has taught the acting craft and directed children, teens, and adults. In Marla's undergrad, she won the prestigious Acadia School of Business Marketing Competition and was invited to present her thesis at a national conference after completing her master's degree. Marla has worked in the private sector, government, and has been self-employed, where she has had to present in front of various crowds.
