

At UPEI, we strive to create an atmosphere within residence that is conducive to both the personal and educational growth of our students. To maintain this environment, it is vital that all students living in residence are committed to the same understanding.

The key to the success of the Residence Life Program is the development of an attitude of mutual respect among residence students. Students in UPEI Residences take an active role in developing this attitude and are encouraged to feel a sense of ownership of their residence buildings, which include Bernardine Hall, Bill and Denise Andrew Hall, Blanchard Hall, The Performing Arts Centre and Residence, and the Wanda Wyatt Dining Hall.

PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING. THIS RESIDENCE LIFE CONTRACT CREATES OBLIGATIONS FOR YOU AND IMPOSES FINANCIAL AND OTHER PENALTIES SHOULD YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR OBLIGATIONS.

Please note: This is a contract for the term as described in the table of section 1. If you leave residence before the end of this term, there will be financial implications.

1) You (the student) are accepting admission to live in residence at the University of Prince Edward Island (UPEI). You are contracting for the use of a residence space for the period beginning on the Start Date and ending on either the day following your last exam in the Winter Semester or the End Date as shown in the table below, whichever comes first (excluding students as per sections 3. This is applicable to all residents.)

2) This contract does not include the December Holiday period, as defined by UPEI's academic calendar, during which time the Residence Buildings are closed. However, arrangements may be made on a case-by-case basis. Students who request permission to remain in residence during the December Holiday period will be required to do so through a written submission to the Residence Life Office by a scheduled deadline date. The extension form for the December Holiday period, as well as the scheduled deadline will be posted by October 31, 2026. Residence Life Management reserves the right to approve, deny, and/or re-evaluate each individual request at any given time. Students staying in residence during the holiday period are required to pay an extended stay charge of $250. Associated costs for remaining in residence during this holiday period will be the responsibility of the resident. Please note: the Dining Hall is closed during the Holiday break and is not available to students staying over.

3) There may be situations where a student (e.g. one semester exchange students, those graduating in the Fall semester, or participating in a cooperative education program or teaching placement) will be unable to fulfill the entire contracted term in residence. In those cases, the Residence Life team will make determinations on an individual basis about the length of the agreement and the financial commitment.

4) Priority for accommodation within residence is given to registered full-time students as per the full-time status requirements set by the UPEI Registrar's Office. Therefore, any student that does not meet the full-time student status requirement may have their acceptance in residence evaluated at any time. Residence Life Management may conduct enrollment checks to ensure that residents remain full-time students. Those registered with Accessible Learning could have different requirements related to course loads. The Residence Life Office will work with these students to support their needs.

5) Residence is intended to function as a living-learning environment. To structure this environment, Residence Life Management reserves the right to assign and/or reassign rooms and roommates before, during, and after move-in. Learning to live with others and to work out individual differences is a part of the residence experience.

Dining plans are not refundable. If you wish to change your residence meal plan (5-day or 7-day unlimited access) selection for the Winter Semester, you must inform Residence Life in writing during the Fall Semester prior to December 15, 2026.

Students who are reinstated after moving out and wish to return to residence will be permitted to do so based on availability.

Further, when such damage occurs to shared areas and cannot be attributed to specific individuals, costs will be shared among the residents of your room, apartment, section, or entire Building. If there are damages or defects to your room or to any items in room, it is your responsibility to report them immediately to residence@upeil.ca to ensure a timely repair.

UPEI is not responsible or liable for any loss or damage to personal effects belonging to you or your guests due to fire, theft, flooding, malicious, reckless or negligent conduct, or any other activity or conduct. We strongly urge you to obtain and possess personal insurance to cover your own effects. UPEI is also not responsible for any kind of injury, damage or loss suffered by you, your guests or invitees while they are in or about your room, the building in which your room is located, or on UPEI property.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you are aware of these obligations. Residence Life reserves the right to amend these guidelines, rules, regulations, procedures and obligations or establish new ones as required throughout the year.

23) Residents found in breach of any of the above will be subject to disciplinary actions. Effort will be made to ensure discipline is progressive and focused on de-escalation and education where possible. Depending on the severity of the infraction(s), this disciplinary action may consist of the issuance of fines, probationary status, eviction from residence, or other measures considered appropriate in the circumstances.
