Centennial Scholars – Seniors’ Bursary Program Application Form

To recognize the contribution of seniors to the classroom, the Centennial Scholars - Seniors’ Bursary program is open to residents of Prince Edward Island aged 60 and over. One Seniors’ tuition waiver per year is available to all UPEI seniors for the tuition cost of one undergraduate course. Additional Seniors’ Bursaries will be available for up to two undergraduate courses per semester (Fall & Winter) based on financial need, as indicated on this form, and availability of funding. A maximum of ten bursaries per semester for all students are available.

Further Criteria and Important Information:

- The bursary program covers undergraduate course tuition only (credit or audit) and is not applicable towards graduate studies courses, short courses, summer courses, or other self-financing courses.
- Applicable student fees, required books, and equipment are not covered by the bursary.
- Course registration is subject to space availability, and prerequisite and other requirements can be found in the annual UPEI Academic Calendar (www.upei.ca/registrar/academic-calendar).
- Students are responsible for tuition charges if bursary funds are not available.
- Bursary application deadlines correspond with semesterly course registration deadlines.
