The Eugenie Ann Pineau Memorial Awards

DESCRIPTION

In 2005, Francis (Fran) Lefaiivre established bursaries to support worthy applicants entering the Gateway Program at UPEI (formerly the Transitions Program.)

These bursaries were created in memory of Fran's mother, Eugenie Ann Pineau, who graduated in 1909 from Prince of Wales College, one of UPEI's predecessor institutions. Miss Pineau successfully pursued her education under very difficult financial circumstances. Immediately after graduating, she migrated to Alberta where she became a life-long educator along with raising a family of five children.

Mr. Francis (Fran) Lefaiivre passed away in 2007. In his memory, Fran's wife Marjorie, made a generous donation to the endowment fund, allowing increased the value of the award to increase and become renewable for an additional year.

CRITERIA

At least two bursaries will be granted to students entering the Transition Program at the University of Prince Edward Island. The bursaries are renewable for the same student upon his/her continuation into bachelor-level studies at UPEI in the following academic year (one time renewable, for their second year at UPEI.)
