Empowering Teacher Educator Scholarship

DESCRIPTION

The Faculty of Education Empowering Teacher-Educator Scholarship was founded in 2018 to aid promising international graduate students undertaking graduate studies in Education at the University of Prince Edward Island, so that they may further develop as educational leaders to make a difference and contribute to their home countries and communities. Faculty of Education Dean, Ron MacDonald, generously donates to this scholarship each year.

CRITERIA

This scholarship will be granted each year to international students who:

- Have been accepted or conditionally accepted (based on language requirements) to a Faculty of Education graduate program;
- Have at least five years successful teaching and/or educational administration experience, or equivalent; and,
- Have experience unexpected hardship (economical, familial, political, financial, or societal) in the past year which has greatly impacted their personal circumstances and capacity to continue their studies

APPLICATION PROCESS (Deadline*: June 1 and November 1)

* June 1 for September entrants, November 1 for January entrants *

Applicants will submit the following: Application Form, Acceptance Letter, and Personal Statement outlining how student meets the scholarship criteria
