Faye and David Huestis Family Foundation Renewable Awards

DESCRIPTION

These awards were established at the University of Prince Edward Island by the Faye and David Huestis Family Foundation to support students who otherwise would be unable to attend post-secondary study. It is the family's intention that these awards will offer a transformational opportunity to students that face significant financial barriers and have experienced obstacles and adversity.

The Huestis family has a history of volunteerism and involvement in the communities they serve including their church activities, as chairs and members of numerous foundations and organization, and a special interest in the World Scout Foundation.

CRITERIA

This award will be granted to a student entering UPEI in their first year of their first undergraduate degree program in any faculty and have experienced obstacles and adversity. Are in significant financial need and completed their entire secondary education at a PEI high school within the last three years.

APPLICATION PROCESS (Deadline: May 1)

Applicants should submit their application material, including a personal statement detailing how they meet the criteria. Provide a letter of reference from an individual who is aware of the applicant's circumstances and will attest that the applicant fits the criteria.
