UPEI Adult Education Award

DESCRIPTION

In 1997, the Director of the UPEI Department of Extension and Summer Sessions requested that Rural Development Council funds from a maturing deposit and funds from a miscellaneous account be combined and endowed to create an adult certificate fund. The Rural Development Council functioned as a community development organization in the late 1960's and 1970's and had as one of its objectives the enhancement of adult education in Prince Edward Island. While the fund was established, no award has been provided as of the creation of these terms.

In 2011, these terms were established in consultation with the Director of Life-long Learning. The Centre for Life-long Learning develops and delivers a broad range of continuing education courses and workshops, summer institutes, language programs, and other services to help meet the needs of life-long learners. Located in Don and Marion McDougall Hall, the Centre offers short courses, online courses, credit and non-credit certificates, and customized training. In addition, the Centre provides advice and support for adult learners wishing to return to school.

CRITERIA

Award will be given to an adult learner (defined as an individual who has been at least seven years absent from high school) who is studying part-time toward an undergraduate degree, diploma, or certificate and has identifiable community service through volunteerism and is in financial need. Applicants should have completed at least two courses at UPEI in the previous academic year.
