

News, Events and Activities

In this issue:

- Academic Instructional Skills Program (AISP) Certificate
- UPEI Teaching Community Conference 2022
- Congratulations!
- Faculty Development Summer Institute on Active Learning in Higher Education 2022

AISP Courses Available

A number of new courses for the Academic Instructional Skills Program have been rolled out. You can self-enroll any time and the course are FREE! Remember to tell your graduate students about this program designed to help them prepare for teaching roles in their academic career. For a program description and links to the courses go to this page for the Teaching and Learning Centre - AISP.

UPEI Teaching Community Conference Next week!

The E-learning Team and the Teaching and Learning Centre are working together to organize this year's conference on Tuesday May 3, 2022. This year's theme is Moving Forward.

We have a terrific series of virtual sessions lined up for the day. For information about the speakers for the keynote, plenary and concurrent session and the schedule Click here

Congratulations to colleagues who have been nominated for Teaching and Educational Leadership Awards this year! We're proud of your accomplishments.

Registration is open for the Faculty Development Summer Institute (FDSI)

— August 8 to 11, 2022 —

For details click here or on the photo for the Institute website

Registration limited to 24 participants.

Register early to avoid disappointment.