

News, Events and Activities

In this issue:

- Multi-purpose Teaching and Learning Space
- Science Atlantic Update
- Academic Instructional Skills Program Update
- Syllabus Survival Guide
- Fall Reading Group
- SoTL Roadshow

Multi-purpose Teaching and Learning Space

We'll soon have a new multi-purpose space in Robertson Library 230 for E-Learning training sessions and various events and workshops with the Teaching and Learning Centre. We are hoping that our furniture will arrive soon so that we can start holding events in the space.

Science Atlantic Update

Science Atlantic, released a report Nov. 22nd on the experiences of science faculty across the region. The organization's goal with the report, called Broadening Horizons, is to uncover the goals and needs of faculty and provide recommendations to enhance their professional experience and contributions. A workshop on enhancing the new faculty experience will be hosted online, November 26, 2021, 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm AST. All are welcome and registration is free.

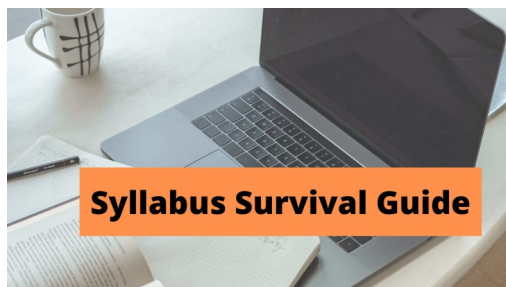

Register for the workshop: <https://sciatl.org/BHInfoHub>

Syllabi "...set the tone for our relationships with students. Let's make it accessible, inclusive and engaging."

~ Alexandra Mihai

Academic Instructional Skills Program Update

Developing a Teaching Dossier is the latest AISP course rolled out. For more info or to self-enroll in this course. Look for it in the Professional Growth, Development and Identity Domain.

Fall Reading Group

The reading group is continuing to explore chapters from Resilient Pedagogies. There is always space for others to join if you want to jump in. Reach out to the TLC@upe.ca for the current chapter. The entire e-book can be accessed here. We meet bi-weekly on Fridays at noon.

Check out this blog in The Educationalist
~The Syllabus Survival Guide
Foto by Mikhail Nilov on Pexels

Interested in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning?

This virtual workshop offered by SoTL Canada on Dec. 17th offers a chance to share a SoTL project in development and provide feedback to others on their SoTL projects. Register for the workshop before Dec 3, 2021