

News, Events and Activities

In this issue:

- Dec. 10 - U. of Windsor Distinguished Speaker Series
- Save the Date - New Year TLC Plans!
- SoTL Advent Calendar
- SoTL Roadshow
- Teaching Dossier Resources

Distinguished Speaker Series in Anti-Racism and Anti-Oppression Pedagogies

Spend the morning of Friday Dec. 10, 2021 with Professor George J. Sefa Dei for a discussion on race, indigeneity and anti-colonial education. Ghanaian-born George Sefa Dei is a renowned educator, researcher and writer who is considered by many as one of Canada's foremost scholars on race and anti-racism studies. Hosted by the University of Windsor.

For more information and to register.

Save the Date

- Jan. 10 - Yvonne Poitras Pratt and Patricia Danyluk, 2021 Alan Blizzard Award Recipients
- Mid January - Teaching Dossier sessions
- Mid to Late January - SoTL Grant Proposal Deadline (details coming soon)
- Date TBD - "Lessons from the Pandemic" Panel
- Mid Feb. - Time to Write Retreat

*We know we're not through this semester yet, but keep an eye on Campus Notices for Teaching and Learning Centre Events to start the new year!

Check out this SoTL Advent Calendar called The Twelve Working Days of SoTL
Comes with a song of the day!

Thinking about Your Teaching Dossier?

The Academic Instructional Skills Program has resources

Getting ready to submit a tenure or promotion file? Looking for some help? Developing a Teaching Dossier is one of the latest AISP courses rolled out. Learn from online self-paced modules, then join the in-person session tailored to address questions specific to UPEI in January 2022. To self-enroll in this course, look for it in the Professional Growth, Development and Identity Domain.

Interested in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning?

This virtual workshop offered by SoTL Canada on Dec. 17th offers a chance to share a SoTL project in development and provide feedback to others on their SoTL projects. Register for the workshop before Dec 10, 2021